

40 years of technical inspection on nuclear power plants

FORCE Technology has since the late 1960s have been active in the nuclear industry. Today we are one of the largest providers of technical inspection services to the Swedish nuclear power plants. Our range of services to nuclear power plant owners include:

- Quality Assurance (establishment of control plans, review of drawings, WPS, materials, etc.)
- Quality Control (verifications vs. control plans)
- Project management and project assistance
- System design and detailed engineering
- Welding Consultancy extensive development of welding procedures/WPQR, WPS's, welder approval, etc.
- Manufacturing and assembly control. (E and Q)
- Non-destructive testing in the manufacturing, assembly and repair
- Advanced non-destructive testing in periodic testing and qualification of new methods
- General documentation management: System for documentation, control plans, consulting, periodic inspection registration, document control, document review

Further information

Tel. +46 21 490 3000 / E-mail: info@force.se